Fort Hays State University

TONIGHT'S GAME

THE GAME: Tonight's game is a Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference tilt between the Fort Hays State Tigers (3-4, 2-2) and the Nebraska-Kearney Lopers (5-2, 3-1). This is also Tiger Friends and Family Day on campus. The FHSU Athletic Department would like to welcome all prospective students and their families who are visiting campus this weekend.

THE COACHES: Tim O'Connor is in his first season of directing the FHSU football program. The Boise State University graduate has been a Tiger assistant coach since 1992. His first squad was picked by conference coaches to finish fourth in the RMAC this season. Nebraska-Kearney head coach Darrell Morris is in his second season at UNK where he has posted a record of 12-5 in his first 17 games. Morris is a 1983 graduate of Northwest Missouri State.

THE SERIES: Today marks the 54th meeting in the border war between the Tigers and Lopers. It is the fourth longest running rivalry FHSU has behind only Emporia State (75), Pittsburg State (63) and Washburn (58). Kearney leads the all-time series 31-21-1 and has won the last five meetings. The Tigers haven't beat the Lopers since a 31-6 victory in 1995 at Lewis Field Stadium. Last season UNK beat FHSU 28-15 at Foster Field in Kearney. The last time they played in Hays was two years ago when the Lopers edged the Tigers 13-12.

ABOUT THE LOPERS: Despite losing 16 starters off last season's 7-3 team, the Lopers enter tonight's contest very much alive for their first ever NCAA II playoff appearance. UNK is currently ranked seventh in the West Region and is ranked 25th this week in the D2football.com Top 25 Poll. Their only two losses have come to teams ranked in the top 10 of the AFCA Division II coaches poll. Second ranked Nebraska-Omaha beat the Lopers in Kearney 30-20 in week two, while sixth ranked Chadron State handed UNK a 26-14 loss two weeks ago at Foster Field. UNK needs to finish in the top four of the final region rankings to make the playoffs.

On offense the Lopers are led by quarterback Mike Muma (6-4 205 Sr. Papillion, Ne.) who averages 270.1 yards per game passing while completing 60.0 percent of his passes. Unlike All-American Justin Coleman who graduated last year, Muma can run with the football giving an already potent Loper attack an additional weapon. Jace Pittman (5-11 180 Sr. North Platte, Ne.) is Muma's favorite receiver. Pittman is second in the RMAC in receptions per game (6.14) and second in yards receiving per game (77.4). Redshirt freshman tailback Mike Miller (5-10 190 Littleton, Co.) leads the UNK ground attack by averaging 99.6 yards per game. Overall, the Lopers rank third in the RMAC in scoring offense (33.9), fourth in rushing (164.7), second in pass offense (274.1) and second in total offense (439.9).

The defense is led by two-time all-conference cornerback Craig Neuhaus (6-0 170 Sr. McCook, Ne.) who has four interceptions. With 16 career interceptions, Neuhaus ranks third on the all-time list at UNK. Linebacker Brian Wachtel (6-1 215 Jr. New Port Richey, Fl.) leads the team in tackles (43.5) and sacks (5.0). As a team, Kearney ranks second in the RMAC in scoring defense (17.6), second in rushing defense (87.7), fifth in pass defense (202.6) and third in total defense (290.3).

UNK is coming off a 47-25 victory last Saturday over Fort Lewis in the Lopers' 2001 homecoming game. Mike Muma threw for four touchdown passes and Mike Miller recorded his third straight 100-yard rushing day to lead Kearney. The Lopers scored on their first five possessions.

ABOUT THE TIGERS: With a 3-4 record, the Tigers will not be going to the playoffs this season, but they can help keep Nebraska-Kearney out with a victory tonight. FHSU will not only be trying to end a five-game losing streak to the Lopers, but end a two-game Lewis Field Stadium losing streak to UNK as well. The last two games in Hays have been decided by a total of four points. In 1999, UNK defeated the Tigers 23-20, before winning 13-12 two years ago.

On offense, the Tigers are ranked fourth in the RMAC in scoring (30.3), first in rushing (246.6), sixth in passing (178.9) and third in total offense (425.4). Jason Broom (5-7 210 Jr. Sapulpa, Ok.) continues to lead the conference in rushing at 148.7 yards per game but has been slowed by injuries. In last Saturday's 23-20 loss at Mesa St., Broom was held to just 29 yards on 11 carries. It marked just the second time this season that Broom has been held under 100 yards in a game. Vinnie Walker (6-0 200 Sr. Los Angeles, Ca.) picked up the slack against the Mavericks, rushing for a career high 149 yards on 14 carries including a 77-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

On defense, the Tigers rank fourth in the conference in scoring defense (24.7), third in rushing defense (123.6), sixth in pass defense (215.9) and fifth in total defense (339.4). Linebacker Michael Balloue (5-10 220 Sr. Longbeach, Ca.) and defensive tackle Casey Seyfert (6-1 275 Sr. Beloit, Ks.) continue to have great seasons. Balloue has 13 tackles for loss, five sacks and an interception, while Seyfert has 15 tackles for loss, five sacks and two fumble recoveries. FHSU is coming off a heartbreaking loss at Mesa State last Saturday 23-20.
